INTRODUCTION.

In the preparation of The Ministry and Churches of New Hampshire, this chronological list of the pastorates was drawn up for my own use, and with no view to publication. It is now granted to the courteous request of the General Association for the press, in the hope that it may be found useful.

It is simply a list, in the order of time, of the beginnings and endings of the pastorates. It does not distinguish ordination from installation, but, by the insertion of an asterisk [*], it does mark the cases in which pastors died in office. The beginnings of successive pastorates are numbered in order, by the regular series of figures in the left hand column; and the endings of the pastorates, whether by death or dismission, are similarly numbered in the right hand column. The difference in these figures gives, therefore, the number of pastorates existing at any given time. Thus, at the end of the year 1800, 290 pastors had been settled, and 182 had died or been dismissed, leaving 108 in service. There is, also, in the same columns, an irregular series of numbers in parentheses (4) which refer backward in the first column and forward in the last, to the other term of the given pastorate. An example will illustrate the simplicity and convenience of this arrangement. Laban Ainsworth was ordained 1783, Dec. 10—the 202nd pastor. The number (752) at the end of the line shows that he was the 752nd in the ending of his long pastorate. Turn to this number in the final column, and it gives the date of his death—1858, Nov. 17. The reverse reference, from his death to his settlement, is as direct by the (202) in the first column.

For other details we refer to the volume already mentioned. In that work the different ministers in each town are given, acting pastors included, with ordinations, installations, dismissions, and the vital facts of the birth, education and death of each minister, the organization of churches, &c. In this list the name of the town, only, is given, and it should be noted that Franconia is always to be supplied with Bethlehem, and Hebron with Groton; that Meriden is in Plainfield, Fisherville (the church) in Boscowen, Great Falls in Somersworth, and Salmon Falls in Rollinsford.

As this Appendix is likely to fall widely into the same hands, and interest the same circle of inquirers, as The Ministry and Churches of New Hampshire, it seems appropriate to add, at the end, a list of such further errata as have been found, and are not corrected, on the final page of that work [or Congregational Quarterly, 1876, p. 600]. On that page I make an exception in favor of "original sources" of information, as trustworthy. But two of the birth dates, here corrected, were furnished me by the gentlemen concerned, and the same is true of several other items.

[ADVERTISEMENT.]

THE MINISTRY AND CHURCHES OF NEW-HAMPSHIRE.

This unique book is a reprint from The Congregational Quarterly of the three articles prepared by Rev. Henry A. Hazen, of Billerica, Mass., the most of whose ministerial life has been spent in New-Hampshire.

Part I. Gives the name of every town in the State, arranged alphabetically, the date of its charter, its population, the date when every Congregational or Presbyterian church was organized, the name of every minister, indicating whether he was ordained or installed, or only a stated supply, the date of his settlement, and the length of his service.

Part II. Gives the name of every minister who ever served in the State, arranged alphabetically, the place and date of his birth, the college by which he was graduated, the date of his graduation, the name of the Theological Seminary where he was educated, the date of his completion of his course, or the name of the person with whom he studied, if he pursued a private course, the date of his ordination, the places in the State where he served as a minister. In case of death, the date of that event, or the age of the person.

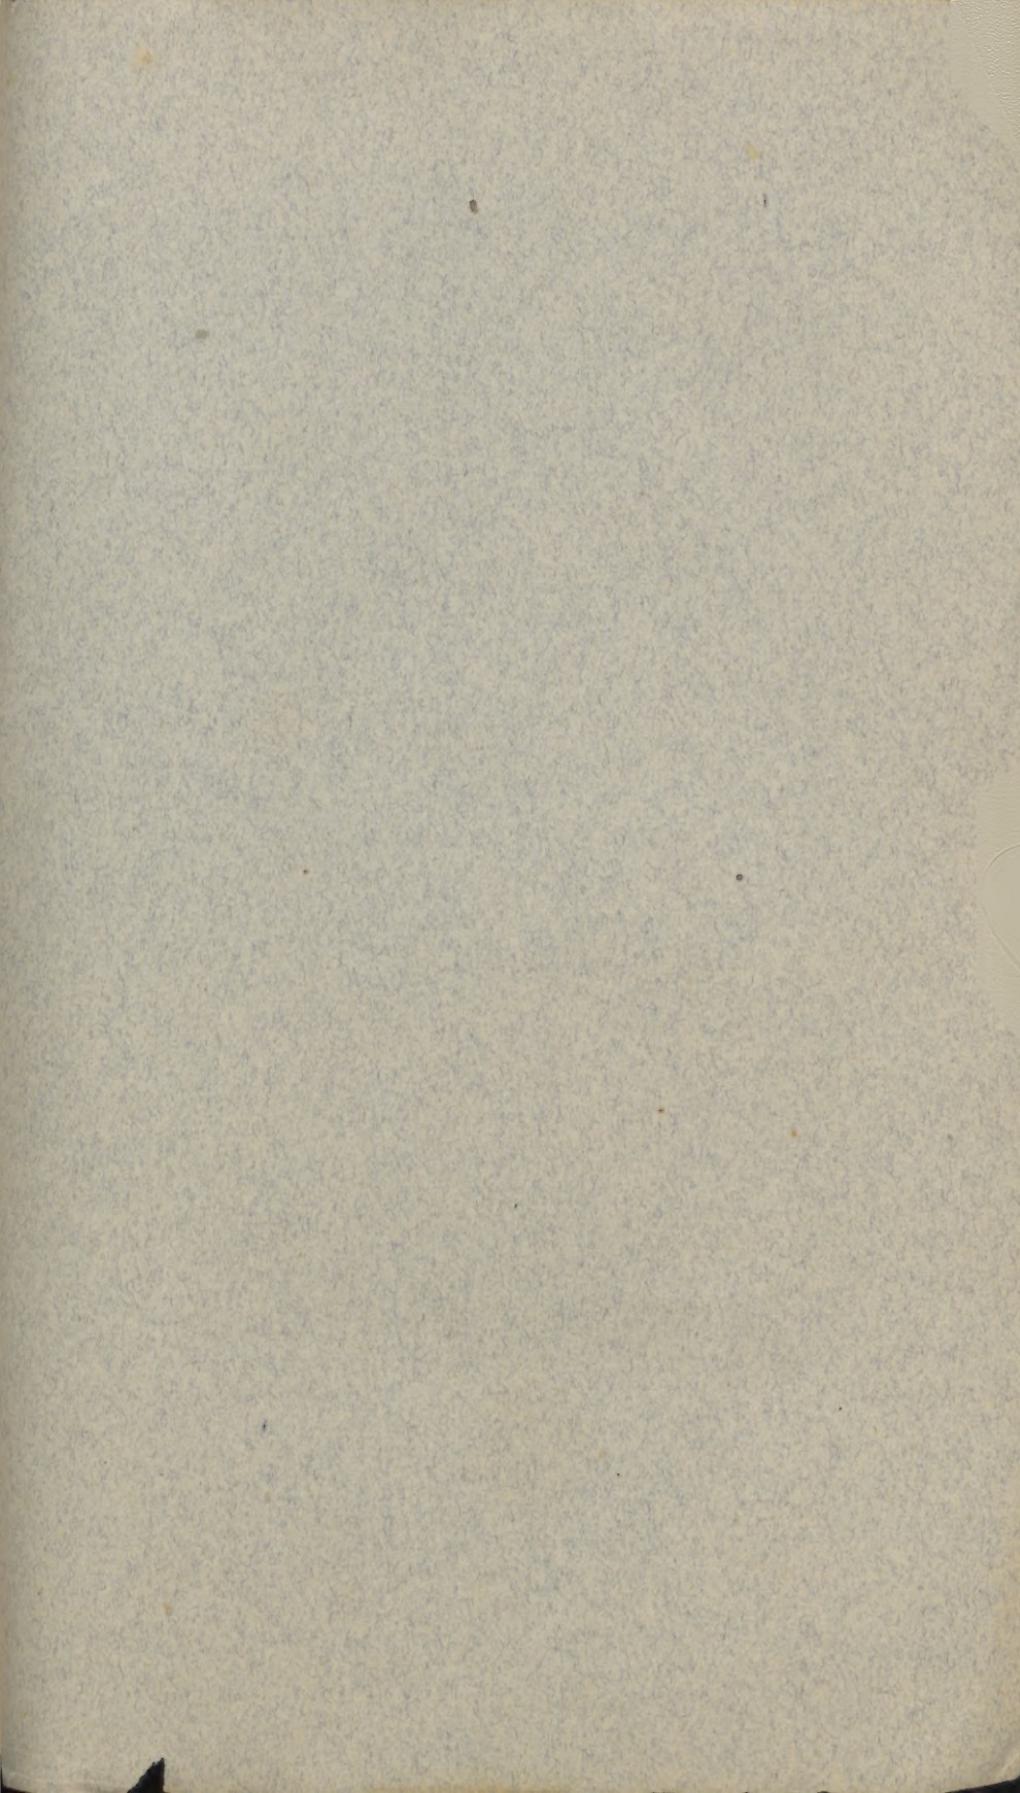

The Supplement gives interesting and curious statistical summaries.

It is safe to say that the book gives more personal and ecclesiastical history than can be found in the same space in any other book that ever was printed.

Every church in the state should have a copy for the use of its clerk. Every minister and every intelligent layman may well consider it a privilege to secure a copy.

The price of the book is $1.50. To any person who sends this sum to The Congregational Quarterly, Congregational House, Boston, Mass., a copy of this book will be sent by mail.

C. CUSHING, Editor.

The copy of this pamphlet addressed to the church by which it is received should be filed among the papers of the church and preserved for future reference.
